I couldn't help but share this new review. Seeing how much people love reading the Double-Edged Sword makes it all worthwhile.

★★★★★ Well into the first chapter, I could not put it down!

I have lived in the Keys so reading it was so much fun. His descriptions of places and events really hit home. I started reading just after dinner and literally could not put it down. My wife finally made me come to bed at Midnight. Then could not wait to start in the next day. So many twists and turns in a great Story line. I highly recommend it to anyone who likes a very interesting mystery novel. C. J's way of keeping you just on the edge of your seat and not being able to wait to get to the next page and chapter is outstanding. What a great Author. Hope he writes another soon. I will be waiting in line. Gordy. Dodge
